Foreword

We, the class of 1951, proudly present to the student body another record of events of Aldie High School. We sincerely hope the year book will be published annually. In the years to come, we hope that while glancing through these pages, you may catch the spirit of your high school days and fondly recall the many happy hours of work and play spent there.

The Senior Class extends the privilege of publishing this book to the succeeding class and wishes that class success.

Seniors of 1951

"Being educated" said Dr. William Lyon Phelps, "means to prefer the best not only to the worst but to the second best."

Being educated also means a chance for greater future security through better preparation. On these critical times it is doubly tragic to waste time. Everyone should profitably spend the school day in doing something that will advance him to a position wherein he will be able to become a better citizen. I know that you will find much discouragement, much temptation and much disillusionment to take the easy way, a short cut, to do the expedient rather than the right.

When a person is determined what can stop him?

I sincerely compliment you on this publication of the 1951 annual.

Most sincerely yours,

Robert A. Myers, Principal

CLASS HISTORY

I never knew time could go so fast. When I was in the first grade I never dreamed that some day I would be on a flight in a super space ship such as this. Doesn't seem very long when one thinks back to those good old first days in school. Boy, was I scared of the teachers and of all the kids, too.

I can remember that first day when 30 freshmen assembled to start those four years of high school. Remember there were 19 boys and 11 girls. I can remember some of the events of that freshman year as if it were only yesterday. The first think we did was to elect the following officers for our freshman year: President--Albert Brown, Vice-President--Peggy Gordon, Secretary--Mary Ann Kirk, Treasurer--Betty Williams, and our sponsor was Miss Huyette.

During our sophomore year the following officers were elected: President--Mary Ann Kirk, Vice-President--Edwin Cross, Secretary--Peggy Gordon, Treasurer--Virginia Furr and our sponsor was Mrs. Virginia Elgin. We were happy when two of our members, Mary Ann Kirk and Janet Crist were accepted into the Beta Club. We were glad to have Randolph Tate from Herndon join our class.

One of the most active years we had was when we were juniors. Juniors have been in high school long enough to learn their way around, to become well versed in the traditions of the school and to acquire a sense of responsibility toward maintaining the traditions. Juniors are the cream of the crop. They do things.

Important events and happenings of the year were electing the following officers: Mary Ann Kirk--President, Wade Taylor--Vice-President, Maude Marshall--Secretary, Peggy Gordon--Treasurer and Mrs. M.L. Trenary was our sponsor. This year more members of our class were accepted into the Beta Club. They were Maude Marshall, Lawson Cockerille, Edwin Cross, Bobby Jones, Robert Solin and Randolph Tate. We are sorry that six members of last years class could not be with us this year. On April 14th, we gave the Seniors a Prom. The theme was "Spring Time". Most of the members went with the Senior Class to Skyline Caverns on a picnic on May 25, 1950.

By the time we became Seniors we were getting somewhat "air minded". At least that's what the other classes thought about us. They thought we had our heads rather high up in the air and had an exaggerated opinion of ourselves. Well, perhaps we did have. After all, we had worked our way to the top. But we'll let you in on a secret. Sometimes when we assumed that braggadocio air, we didn't feel that way. It was just a cover-up because we were a little sad sometimes that we would soon be leaving school.

The Senior year has been a year full of study and activity. To start with there was the election of class officers. President--Mary Ann Kirk, Vice-President--Lawson Cockerille, Secretary--Maud Marshall, Treasurer--Betty Cooper and Mrs. Virginia Elgin was again our sponsor. On November 15th we had our Ring Ceremony. Our principal, Mr. Myers, presented our rings to us. When February arrived the boys of the Senior Class presented a farce entitled "Pa Skipton's Daughter" and it was a success. The girls of the Senior Class presented on Feb. 28, a play entitled "Bachelor Bride" which was also a success. We were glad to have Harold Thompson from W & L join our class. Peggy Gordon, Alvin McClellan, Betty Cooper, Keith Byrne, Betty Utterback, Margaret Shackelford and Harold Thompson became Beta Club members.

And now here we are, comfortably seated in this space ship enflight to new horizons. As for me, I think I've earned a good nap, and I'm going to take it. If we hit a cloud or get close enough to talk to the man in the moon, or get close enough to Mars to see a real good show give me a shake, I don't want to miss anything.

Historian: Randolph Tate

Class Prophecy

Just as I went to get on board, Mr. Myers, principal of Aldie High, handed me this. It is a travel letter not to be read, so it says, until I am well started on the Flight to New Horizons. Wonder what could be in it? He said to read it so all of you could hear it. Here goes.

I know you are going to be wondering just what is ahead of you when you land at your destination, New Horizons. As your Future, I send you greetings. We welcome you to the adult world.

I notice that as some of you came on board, you brought various types of luggage with you. Your passports were examined before you departed on this flight, and it was found that you are eligible to graduate from high school. Your diplomas were regular and in order. We know that you are qualified to take on the work that is before you.

Galen Glass is president of the National Piggy Bank of Middleburg.

Margaret Shackelford is nursing in Grace Hospital and is married to a doctor, who is a child's specialist.

Betty Utterback is in a night club dancing the Charleston. She is also teaching the Charleston in a private school.

Alvin McClellan is now driving a Cadillac since he sold his model-A to the Smithsonian Institute.

Edwin Cross is now a lieutenant in the Navy of the U.S.A.

Llewellyn Payne is relaxing in an easy chair watching the proceeds from his dairy farm roll in.

Jean Ralph is the newly appointed Physical Ed. teacher at the New Consolidated High School in Loundoun County.

Lawson Cockerille is operating on a wealthy young girl, assisted by a beautiful nurse.

Harold Thompson is now president of the "Blow Em Big" Bubble Gum Plant in Arcola.

Betty Cooper is taking care of invalids at the Old Maid's Home.

Keith Byrne is an agriculture professor at V.P.I.

Peggy Gordon is now secretary of the Collier and Ashton Electrical Appliances, at Middleburg.

Maude Marshall--The year 1957 and we see Maude conducting a Home Demonstration meeting of the Aldie Club in the home of Mrs. Llewellyn Payne.

Randolph Tate--A progressive farmer and owner of the Goose Creek Farm near Aldie.

Mary Ann Kirk--owner and operator of "Mary Ann's Gift Shop".

Interesting events await you at the airport of your dreams in the land of New Horizons. I'll be there in person to greet you when your ship lands. This ship in which you are making the flight is one especially chartered for your use.

Best wishes for a pleasant flight and a happy landing.

With My kindest regards, I am
YOUR FUTURE
(MAUDE MARSHALL)

Now isn't that a nice travel letter?

Class Will

I've lugged this old brief case around for a whole term. I have to get a will written. I think I may need some help, but if Alvin McClellan will just open up that typewriter case, I'll start dictating, or maybe you had better take it down in shorthand first. That will be faster. Got a notebook handy?

Now, let me say--don't take this down yet--let me say this is a very valuable document that I am going to dictate. An important, but poor, client of mine has asked me to draw up this document. Of course, I need the money; but you know how it is, you can't refuse an old friend. This client of mine has certainly been a good friend for a long time.

This client of mine is going on a long journey. I've a hunch that this client is going to have a brilliant future and when fortune comes in, I am sure that I'll get my share of it. My old friend will not forget me.

These hazardous days of flying all around in an airplane makes people stop and think. They want to make arrangements for their property. They want to leave it to certain people. So I have to draw up this will for my client.

Now take this--We, the Seniors of Aldie High School, being mindful that our school days are about over, desire to leave, devise, and bequeath our earthly possessions as follows:

Alvin McClellan wills his Model-A to Mason Johnson hoping he can get some use out of it.

Galen Glass leaves his talking to David Alexander.

Betty Cooper leaves her athletic ability to Lucy Kirk.

Margaret Shackelford wills her sweet personality to Evelyn Glascock.

Keith Byrne leaves his ability to get along with the freshman girls to Fred Tate.

Randolph Tate leaves his eye lash curler to Alfrey Piggott.

Harold Thompson leaves his worn out bubble gum to Robert Siegfried, hoping it will not go to waste.

Peggy Gordon wills her winning smile to Peggy Downs.

Lawson Cockerille wills his high scholastic standards to Sam Rhodes.

Maude Marshall values her possessions too greatly to give them away.

Jean Ralph leaves her attractiveness to any lucky girl in the Sophomore Class.

Mary Ann Kirk leaves her ability of leadership to Rebekah Ward.

Llewellyn Payne leaves his cowboy boots to the Hill Billies in Aldie.

I, Edwin Cross leave the Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class to the person who has the privilege of writing it next year.

And lastly, we do hereby appoint our principal, Mr. R. Myers to be the executer of this, our Last Will and Testament, and reposing confidence in him, request that he be not required to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties. He has done a good job of administering to us in high school, and we believe he will have no difficulty in carrying out our wishes herein stated.

In witness whereof we have here unto set our hands and signatures to this valuable document this 15th day of May, 1951.

Signed: Senior Class of Aldie High School

Witnessed by: Ben Rhodes---President of Junior Class
Mrs. Virginia Elgin, Class Sponsor

Now, type that up when you have time, so that we can get it all signed and witnessed at our next stop enflight for New Horizons.

In early autumn aspirants for the varsity team were busily practicing on the outdoor court. Then came the great day in November when team members were announced by the coach, Miss Bush. The first game of a heavily scheduled season was played against Lincoln on December 15. After an enjoyable and fairly successful season, the last game was played on March second.

A lot of credit should go to Regena Buck, Manager and Patti Rhodes, scorekeeper, who helped keep the season running smoothly.

The high pointer of the season was Maude Marshall with 221 points. Mary Ann Kirk was second with 199, Betty Cooper, third with 166 and Peggy Gordon, fourth with 34.

These boys managed to win eight games while losing seven. They scored 690 points to our opponents' 704.
